Vision

Vishwa Adhyayan Kendra (Center for International Studies) is committed to an intellectual understanding of the world, in light of ancient Indian philosophy to promote responsible development, peace and brotherhood.

Mission

Vishwa Adhyayan Kendra (Center for International Studies) would make an attempt to study and promote research in the areas of complex global problems and the search for solutions. Central to the Center's mission is the advancement of unity of likeminded people through various programs and activities. The Center is determined to influence national agendas regarding international developments, to build bridges between the Center and similar institutions abroad, and to advance research on international issues.

To establish contact with various organizations of the world that believe in the welfare of total humanity; Communicate, cooperate and coordinate with them to promote international understanding in light of ancient Indian philosophy and provide an alternative viewpoint for world affairs and indo-centric events.

Vishwa Adhyayan Kendra (VAK) was established as a registered, non-profit, non-political and non-governmental voluntary organization with the following objectives.

To promote international understanding, cooperation and world peace by highlighting the time tested philosophy and teachings that originated since ancient times.
